

Can you mail my documents to another country for me?

Yes.

That's completely up to you because we require that you provide us with a prepaid return FedEx or UPS shipping label so we can mail your documents back to you or to wherever and whomever you want them to go.

Just make sure that you check with the shipping company you use and provide us with a customs shipping invoice if the country you're sending documents to requires that.