

How does the U.S Department of State attach or affix an apostille or authentication certificate to a document?

The U.S Department of State office will issue and attach an 8 1/2 x 11 federal apostille certificate or federal authentication certificate onto the original document that was presented to them with a grommet.