

Does Apostille Texas provide document translation services?

Apostille Texas does not provide document translation and translator services.

But we can rush the apostille and legalize your documents as soon as you get them translated and properly notarized by a Texas notary public. We can also provide you with mobile notary services in the Austin, TX metro area to meet with your translator to notarize your documents.