

What are document apostille services?

Document apostille services, document authentication services, and document legalization services are professional services that a third-party company provides people, corporations, and businesses to expedite the filing of legal documents on their behalf at a U.S. Secretary of State office (one in all 50 states), the U.S. Department of State in Washington D.C., or at a U.S. foreign embassy or consulate in Washington D.C.