

What documents do I need for an apostille?

To receive a state-level (Texas) apostille certificate from the Texas Secretary of State all you need to do is mail us (Apostille Texas) or drop off at our office your documents along with our Texas apostille service order form.

To receive a federal-level apostille or authentication certificate from the U.S Department of State all you need to do is mail us or drop off at our office your documents along with our federal apostille service order form.

To receive a document legalization certificate from a Washington D.C.-located U.S foreign embassy or consulate all you need to do is mail us or drop off at our office your documents along with our embassy document legalization service order form and for a few countries (Lebanon for example) fill out an embassy application form and provide a photocopy of a valid passport.