What is a notary public?

A notary public or public notary is an individual who is appointed by one of the fifty U.S states to serve the general public as an impartial witness in taking acknowledgments, administering oaths, and performing other notarial acts authorized by the law of the state in which they are licensed.