

Can you apostille a Texas Articles of Incorporation document?

Yes and no.

The Texas Secretary of State changed what they used to call Articles of Incorporation to a Certificate of Formation in 2006.

So any corporation registered with the Texas Secretary of State after 2006 will now be issued a Certificate of Formation apostille instead of an Articles of Incorporation apostille.