

How do I apostille a document in Texas?

For you, to apostille a document in Texas either you or a Texas apostille services company that you hire will rush file your original recordable documents or your properly notarized original non-recordable documents at the Texas Secretary of State located in downtown Austin, TX.

You must either mail or drop off your documents to us to receive a Texas apostille certificate.

You can't email, fax, or text documents to the State of Texas.