

How do I get an apostille in San Antonio?

<https://www.apostilletexas.org/wp-content/themes/realState/vid/San-Antonio-Texas-Apostille-Services.mp4>

The short and truthful answer is you can't.

The only place in the State of Texas (or the country) where you or your company can be issued a Texas apostille certificate or Texas authentication certificate on any type of personal, business, or corporate document that was either notarized by a Texas notary public or was issued from a Texas governmental agency is at the Texas Secretary of State located in Austin, TX.

When you see companies advertising online for San Antonio apostille services please understand you can't travel anywhere in San Antonio or mail your documents to anywhere in San Antonio, and be legally issued a Texas apostille or authentication certificate.

All you are doing is mailing, dropping off, or having someone come to your office or home to pick up your documents which is a third-party middle-man company that will either outsource the filings of your documents to a person or a company like ours that is actually located in Austin who will then physically walk in and apostille your documents at the Secretary of State Texas office.

Or worse these shady middle-man places just mail your documents off to the Texas Secretary of State office and then tell you it will take several days to many weeks or months to procure your certifications while they absurdly overcharge you for so-called, "expedited services."

Check out our apostille competitor page where we help you compare thirteen other Texas apostille companies to our pricing and turnaround times.