

How do I get an apostille in Texas?

To get an apostille in Texas, you or an apostille services company that you hire on your behalf (like Apostille Texas) will file and present your original recordable documents or properly notarized original non-recordable documents to the Texas Secretary of State in Austin, TX.

Once accepted, the State of Texas will issue a universal Texas apostille certification on your legal documents.