

I don't live in the Austin, TX area can I get my documents apostilled in the city I live in?

No, sorry, you can't.

There is only one place in one city where any person, business, or corporation can file and receive a Texas apostille certificate.

That is at the Texas Secretary of State's office located in downtown Austin, TX. The Secretary of State of Texas does not have any satellite or branch offices anywhere in Texas (not Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston, or El Paso), the U.S, or the world.

You also cannot email, text, or fax your documents to us or to the Texas Secretary of State to receive a Texas apostille certification.
