

Where can I get an apostille in Texas?

This is a two-part answer.

An apostille in Texas can only be issued in one place and in one city and that is at the Texas Secretary of State in downtown Austin, TX.

No exceptions!

This Texas apostille process cannot be done in any other city in Texas or by any notary public, lawyer, judge, translator, embassy, consulate, or consular office.

However, international apostille companies like Apostille Texas can act as a liaison to rush file documents at the Texas Secretary of State office for people and companies.

By hiring Apostille Texas, you will expedite the process and bypass all the Texas governmental red tape and nightmarish horrors.

You get 7 days a week of customer service, same day filing service of your legal documents compared to waiting several weeks with the state, and we explain and educate you how to apostille documents in a clear simple way with thousands of graphics, hundreds of videos, and a database of hundreds of FAQ's compared to trying to navigate the frustrating state government website and phone line system.
