

Where do I get an apostille in Texas?

This must be answered in two parts.

An apostille in Texas can only be issued in one location and in one city, and that is at the Texas Secretary of State.

The Texas apostille process cannot be done in any other city in Texas or by any public notary, attorney, judge, embassy, consulate, or consular branch.

But apostille companies like Apostille Texas can act as a liaison to expedite the filing of your documents at the Texas Secretary of State office for individuals and companies.

By hiring Apostille Texas, you rush the process and bypass all the government red tape and headaches.

You get seven days a week of phone and email customer service, same business day filing of your legal documents compared to waiting several weeks with the state, and we explain and educate you how to apostille documents in a clear simple way with thousands of graphics, hundreds of videos, and a database of hundreds of FAQ's compared to trying to navigate the awful state government website and phone line system.
